CINDY E. BARGANIER INTERIORS, LLC

By working together, husband and wife team Jeff and Cindy Barganier are making their business, Cindy E. Barganier Interiors, as successful as it is fun.

Date Founded: 1980. Primary Products/Service: Full-service interior design; a designer of fabrics, custom furniture; and dealer in art and architectural antiques. Goal: To do the best job possible in a timely fashion while fulfilling the dreams and aspirations of their clients. Recognition: Jeff and Cindy were made honorary members of the Officers' Club at Maxwell AFB in appreciation of the work they did there. Cindy was a finalist in the Southeastern Designer of the Year Awards for 2009. She recently sold her first fabric design to a major fabric mill, and is working on a fabric line and a custom furniture line. "My upholstery is designed to fit the human frame and work in smaller homes. The case pieces are designed to serve multiple purposes—transformer furniture, if you will." Jeff has been published in Montgomery Living, Architectural Salvage News and in Europe for his stories on roof thatching in Holland and use of architectural antiques in new construction. Focus: Residential design is the main focus, but the firm has completed a number of commercial projects. Distinguishing Factors: Cindy is the creative force in the business while Jeff, an attorney and former investment advisor, manages the firm and writes about their adventures. Her design degree is from Auburn University where she serves on the Advisory Board for the Interior Design Program. Secret to Success: "We love to please clients. And we travel in Europe, the States or wherever jobs take us." Hours of Operation: By appointment.
